Dear Walter,

Prior to sending the manuscript by registered mail one of your staff phoned and asked that even though you would have a receipt from the registration I phone to report safe arrival.

The well-wrapped package came yesterday. That being a Saturday there was no point in trying to phone. Instead I write to thank you for the belated return and the care taken in the packaging.

However, none of the King material was in the package. I mentioned this material the the pleasant woman who phoned as I have mentioned it in several earlier letters to you.

You (plural) ask for a few of the records, I suppose to show to Mr. Geller.

I think we will both be happier if you please return them.

Instead of mailing them directly to me I'd appreciate it if you mail them to Mr. Richard Gallen, 128 E. 56, NYC 10022. He can return them to me.

He is the friend who phoned you for me. He also is familiar with my Frame-Up. I think the rare glimpse of the FBI and of the workings of justice may interest him.

If you do not have those copies in your publishing files ask your lawyer, who was with you and who had particular interest in them.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
